Fort Smith Transit Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

Fort Smith Transit's (FST) funding partner the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) does not require FST to possess or maintain an EEO Policy. However, FST maintains a voluntary EEO policy to ensure that FST applicants are employed and treated without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, sex or age. Such action shall include, but not be limited to: hiring, promotion, or upgrading, demotion, transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertising, layoff or termination, disciplinary actions, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training. Fort Smith Transit will follow the City's affirmative action plan which is designed to achieve full utilization of women and minorities in all parts of the workforce. Applicants will be notified of the policy and process to file a complaint concerning discrimination.

The Transit Director is responsible for program oversight. While managing the EEO program the director will be sensitive to utilization of women and minorities, participation rates relative to the current labor market and traditional exclusions of employment opportunities. The director will work to assess specific racial group information and data for goal projection, as well as identify causes of under utilization (if any) while monitoring the program. Transit management will be evaluated for their participation in the EEO program and all employees will share equally in learning the program requirements and its significance.

Internal applicants may reference the City Handbook for policy information regarding discrimination. External applicant request(s) or concerns may be made in writing to Ken Savage, Transit Director, P.O. Box 1908, Fort Smith AR 72902. Requests or concerns may also be reported directly by phone at (479) 783-6464 or 7-1-1 (Arkansas Relay Service for hearing impaired. Requests or concerns may also be directed to the Human Resources department at 479-784-2221.

To ensure effective outreach, the department will post the program on the department's website and maintain a posting in the public meeting room near the driver's break area to highlight the procedures to file a complaint with the EEOC. The department will also place the following phrase on all of its brochures and advertisements; FST does not discriminate in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its program or activities.

The purpose of the EEO program is to ensure equality in all employment practices as well as program adherence with regard to the federal requirements.

Here is your copy of the Human Resources Policy Handbook for the City of Fort Smith.

The handbook is the human resource policy approved by the City Board of Directors.

Please read and keep your handbook. It covers information you need to know, and it may answer many of your questions.

While all questions cannot be answered by a handbook, ours is flexible enough to address specific questions and situations in your department.

Most of the policies are easy to read and understand. Others may seem very formal. So, please talk to your supervisor, department head, or Human Resources if you would like clarification on any of the policies.

Thank you for your interest. Hopefully, this handbook will help us all to better understand the City's human resource policy.

Sincerely,

Bill Harding, City Administrator
